London LN2 6JR
England

Dear Ms Olenick,

I am writing to you on the recommendation of Mr Kamp, my Computer Science teacher, who met you last week at the Cyber Security Conference in Brussels.

I would like to make an initial enquiry into the possibility of doing a 8-week work placement (or internship) in your company.

I am a French student in the first of a two-year technical course in Computer Science. We study Information technology, computing, programming, communication techniques and English.

A 8-week placement abroad is compulsory in the curriculum, and I will present a description of the company and the tasks I carried out there at an oral examination at the end of June.

I would be very grateful if you would be kind enough to consider my application for an internship from April 18 to June 15, 2023. An internship in your company would be a marvelous opportunity for me, would enable me to gain experience in a foreign company, and allow me to use my English for practical purposes.

Please find my CV enclosed (or attached, for an email) and should you need further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely,

Erwan Le Breton

Tips for writing a successful covering letter

Read these tips and complete with the following words: stress - describing - include - proofread - purpose - explain - hearing - skills - spell - sell - page - optimistic - match

1. Always _____ a cover letter when sending your CV.
2. Find out the name and title of the individual who will be receiving your letter. Make sure you _____ the name properly and get the proper abbreviation (Mr., Mrs., Ms.).
3. Be careful if you “cut & paste”! Personalise each letter. If possible, _____ why you want to work for the organisation.
4. Make sure the letter is PERFECT! Spelling, punctuation, and grammar count. Have someone _____ the letter before mailing it. Avoid using contractions.
5. In the opening paragraph, tell the reader the _____ of the letter.
6. Use “I” statements and action verbs when _____ your experience.
7. Get to the point! Employers do not have the time to read lengthy letters. A cover letter should never exceed one _____.
8. Focus on the specific _____ and interests you possess that you can offer the employer. Concentrate on skills which _____ the advertised employment qualifications or the desired work placement.
9. _____ what you can do for the company, not what the company can do for you.
10. Sound _____ and confident. _____ yourself!
11. End by stating that you look forward to _____ from or meeting with the reader. Make a specific suggestion for the next step of the process and follow up as promised.

“You never get a second chance to make a first impression.”
